Abstract

The length of the abstract should be 150-250 words. The abstract should appear immediately following the title and names of authors, and should not repeat information already present in the title. Author should state specifically the contents of the paper without reading the main body. State briefly the subject, methods, equipment, results and discussion of research. A summary leading to conclusions is not required.

Key words: Three to five key words should be chosen that best describe the contents of the paper. Capitalize the initial letter of each word.

1.0 Guideline

Manuscripts should be easy to read and their contents presented clearly. The authors should use 12 pt Times New Roman or alternative font.

2.0 The order of your manuscript

The following order is the recommended structure of a manuscript for technical papers based on experimental work.

- Introduction (purpose of research, significance of research supported by a literature survey, outline of contents, explanation and others)
- Main body of text (theoretical analysis, methodology, results of experiment, interpretation of results and discussion)
- Conclusion
- Acknowledgment
- Appendix
- References

The above order is presented as an example, and authors may select the most suitable and effective style for the contents of their manuscript. Figures and tables may be included in main body text or in Appendix.

3.0 References

- (1) References should be indicated in text by superscript numbers followed by a parenthesis.
- (2) Doe, J. and Smith, W., Title of reference, Name of journal, Vol. 1, No. 2, 2008, pp. 1-10.

*Deadlines: Electronic copies of the full paper must be submitted by July 9, 2013 to ensure that it can be included in the CD version of the proceedings to be distributed to the participants on the day of the conference. Please send to csnamocojr@yahoo.com.

In case of the plenary presentations, the presentation in powerpoint format may be submitted in lieu of a full paper.
